although these numbers are low, it would still be beneficial for patients to meet the recommended daily intake of folic acid in the event that pregnancy did occur.

northern niger, particularly in and around the cities of iferouane, arlit, and agadez, is affected by mnj activities