for some time a connection between asthma and acid reflux has been recognized but the reason for the connection has remained a mystery.

In this connection, banksfis may consider constituting appropriate screening committees, special cells for appraisal of credit proposals and monitoring the progress performance of the projects.